School district posts another test score jump

WUSD schools met the goal of Board President David Westin to achieve a 20-point increase in API scores overall this year. In fact, scores at the district went up 28 points.

The gain makes for a 48-point increase in API scores districtwide over two years.

Westmore Oaks this year joined Bridgeway Island and Southport elementary schools in achieving the 800-point status with this year's round of testing.

Said Westin in a WUSD press release:

"The Washington Unified School District's sustained

API achievement reflects our 'whole child' approach -- focusing on the student's academic, emotional and social needs -- along with quality teaching that is driven by students' learning needs and determination to make learning applicable to continued success, long after they graduate from our schools. This is another clear indication that our district has already gone to the next level."

Added Dayton Gilleland, WUSD superintendent, in the same press release:

"Gains are no longer isolated to a few schools or socioeconomic groups. We are now seeing more consistent growth throughout the district. . . Beyond test scores, on any given day, if you walk into a classroom, you will see engaged students who are excited and ready to learn."

The district reported that almost every school saw at least a 10-point increase in API scores this year.

The exception was Yolo High, the district's alternative high school, whose scores dropped from 406 points to 389.

Coffee class delivers at River City High School

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

A high school teacher may work long hours for unappreciative students. And he or she may not get the best pay in the world.

But, at least at River City High School in West Sacramento, a teacher can get one rather nice perk that many of the rest of us might envy: good coffee, delivered to their room, on demand in the morning. Cheap.

The java comes courtesy of the River City Coffee Company -- a class which provides work skills to a number of students. The youths take orders from teachers and staff by phone, brew up the coffee orders, and then deliver it around campus by foot. Their adult supervisors include Yelena Piskun, who helps make sure the orders are taken and filled properly.

"We make coffee and deliver it," reports a student named Javier. "We also have lattes, hot chocolate and orange tea. We're about to start doing smoothies."

Students Beth, Kevin and Shannon said the practice gives them workplace experience.

The coffee beans come from Peet's, and a cup of coffee bought by a reporter was just $1 and very tasty.

The orders were coming in slowly when the News-Ledger visited the class last week (the class might be busier if it accepted coffee orders from students, but that is forbidden). Soon, though, the phone rang and student Shannon took an order. Before a teammate started working on the order, some confusion surfaced about whether it was for a latte or something else -- and Yelena Piskun helped the students straighten the order out by calling the customer back. Within a couple of minutes Kevin was on his way with the brew to a different building on campus.

Spanish teacher Tessa Hernandez got her steamy cup of the good stuff. Another happy customer.

Two held for murder

A 29-year old Sacramento man was found mortally wounded in a motel parking lot after a stabbing Friday night. The incident occurred at the Towne House Motel, on the 900-block of West Capitol.

According to West Sacramento police, officers responded to a "possible stabbing" report and found the victim "with multiple stab wounds to his upper body." The victim was taken to the hospital, where he later died.

Two suspects were seen fleeing the scene into nearby bushes but were caught and detained by officers," said Lieutenant Tod Sockman of the West Sacramento Police Department. They were identified as 28-year old Billy Wolfington and 30-year old Shannon Silva, both of West Sacramento.

The pair were arrested for murder, and conspiracy to commit murder, and were being held without bail.

The identity of the victim was not immediately released.

Both suspects were on state parole, said the police depart-

Lt. Sockman told the News-Ledger that both were also "validated" gang members, with Wolfington a member of the "Broderick Boys" gang.

Wolfington was at the center of a local court case decided in 2007.

The Yolo County District Attorney's office crafted an anti-gang injunction in West Sacramento, targeting the Broderick Boys. The D.A.'s office asserted that the gang was an "unincorporated association" with about 350 members. When serving the gang with judicial notice, the notice was delivered only to Wolfington -- with the assumption that this would be adequate service to the entire gang.

The ACLU and others challenged the process, and a judge agreed that service was inadequate. The D.A.'s office and local police have since crafted and instituted a new version of the gang injunction, which provides a curfew and other restrictions on "validated" gang members in much of the city's north.

Sockman said that a motive for Friday's stabbing and other details are still under investigation.

Killed in Solano accident

A 37-year old West Sacramento man was killed while standing next to his disabled vehicle on I-80 in Vacaville early Sunday morning.

According to reports in the Vacaville Reporter and Dixon Patch, Gary Hanks (a 1992 graduate of River City High) was killed at about 2 a.m.

According to the Vacaville Reporter's website, Hanks was struck by a suspected drunk driver, Duan Lee of Vacaville, who drifted off the road while allegedly under the influence. His compact car hit Hanks's parked SUV, and tossed Hanks into the road.

Other traffic began to slow. But "a minute or two later," another suspected drunk driver ran over the body and hit Lee's car head-on.

That car was driven by Michael Hackbart, a 27-year old from American Canyon. The collision injured Lee and Hackbart's passenger.

Lee was treated for his injuries and booked into jail on charges of murder and felony DUI, said the Reporter. Hackbart was booked for felony DUI. His passenger sustained serious injuries.

Charter school closes

Students returning to a West Sacramento charter school for fall classes found it closed last week.

The News-Ledger spoke with Paul Preston, superintendent and executive director of the California College, Career and Technical Education Center (CTec), and Preston confirmed that the campus was closed due to money problems.

He chiefly blamed delays in funding from the state department of education.

Think twice about that European vacation

I've been thinking lately that it's finally time for me to take myself a European vacation, something I've always wanted to do, although for some reason it has never seemed to get beyond the planning stages. I have talked to lots of people who have already been there, and they all seem to think that Paris should be my first destination. I'm afraid all I really know about the "City of Light" is that Napoleon Bonaparte once called it home and that Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman fell in love there before they ended up in Casablanca. I've also been told that I will love England and all its historical sites, although London is apparently very expensive if you stay more than a few days. Scandinavia is also supposed to be a gorgeous part of Europe, and since I've read so many books on the history of World War II, I also want to spend some time in Germany. Spain has always interested me, too, but most of all, I want to see Italy.

The art buff in me wants to see some of the major works of Michelangelo, Leonardo da Vinci and Raphael, and Italy is where you can find them. And like most everyone else, I've always wanted to see the Colosseum in Rome and stroll through that city's many piazzas and museums. Then off I would go to Venice to take a gondola ride down the Grand Canal to St. Mark's Square. Next would be Florence, the birthplace of the Renaissance, with all its gorgeous architecture and fabulous works of art by all the great Masters. And I would even throw in scenic Tuscany and the beautiful Lake Country if I could find the time.

So, having decided that it was finally time to leave West Sacramento in the dust and get on one of those many roads that lead to Rome, I thought it might be a good idea to first pick the brain of someone who has actually lived in Italy. I will call her Dotty and she was actually born in England. She married an Italian, however, and was soon on her way to the biggest adventure of her life.

"Well," said Dotty when I eagerly asked her to tell me everything she possibly could about Italy, "the first thing you want to do is avoid being there from May through September, when it is ridiculously hot and humid and there are millions of tourists everywhere you look. Secondly, be prepared for more graffiti than you've ever seen in your life, especially in the big cities, where it's everywhere. Next, just accept the fact that if you speak English or even speak fluent Italian with any kind of foreign accent, the taxi cab drivers and shop owners are going to charge you at least twice what they do the natives. Oh, and don't ever count on a bus or any other form of public transportation being on time. Time as you and I understand it simply does not exist in Italy. But at least you are a man, and that should help."

"What do you mean by that?" I asked with interest.

"Well," explained Dotty, "you have to understand that Italy is a man's country. Women are supposed to get married, stay at home with the children, shop for fresh food daily and then cook wonderful meals with it, and most important of all, cause their men no grief. You have to understand, most Italian men live at home forever and are very attached to their mother, so when they finally do get married, they expect their wife to treat them the same way their mother always has. Plus women are also not supposed to be out in the work force taking jobs away from the men, most of whom get their jobs through nepotism, by the way."

"Nepotism?"

"Oh yes, the whole country is based on nepotism, and even then, most of the jobs aren't real jobs."

"How so?"

"Well, in Italy, especially in any kind of government work, 50 relatives will be hired to do the work of 20 men. Plus the lunch hour goes on forever and offices close early, so if you are used to efficiency and good service, Italy will be a shock to you. But the biggest shock you will find in Italy, if you are a woman anyway, is the sexism, and I guess that really shouldn't be such a shock considering the fact that Italians keep re-

'You have to understand, most Italian men live at home forever and are very attached to their mother, so when they finally do get married, they expect their wife to treat them the same way their mother always has. electing a scumbag like Berlusconi to be their prime minister. His whole career revolves around sexism and his sex scandals would make your President Clinton look like a choir boy."

Suddenly sensing that her less than glowing critique of Italy was starting to put a damper on my European vacation plans, Dotty added, "Don't get me wrong, Daryl. Italy has many good points, including the marvelous architecture, all that wonderful history, and some of the best food and wine in all of Europe. All I'm saying is that if you stay longer than a short vacation, I'm afraid Italy is a country that can disappoint you in many ways. It certainly disappointed me."

"Well," I said, trying to be cute, "at least you married yourself one of those famous Italian lovers."

"Please, let's not talk about my biggest disappointment of all!"

Police log

Information for this 'Police Log' has come directly from original police reports and documents. It's just a sampling of the reports, calls for service and arrests made by the West Sacramento Police Department during the past week. The information includes citizen complaints and other statements that have not substantiated or verified by an investigation or a courtroom.

Aug. 31, 10:30 a.m.

A 77-year old woman on Elder Drive complained about loud music at a neighbor's, and "demanded a citizen's arrest." Police cited at 37-year old neighbor in response to the complaint.

Sept. 3, 1:09 a.m.

An officer stopped a car for a code violation at Industrial and Harbor boulevards. The driver's license was suspended. The vehicle was searched, and police found methamphetamine, hydrocodone, marijuana and a meth pipe. Neither the 41-year old Manzanita Avenue man nor the 40-year old Sacramento woman in the car admitted owning these items. Both were booked, and the car was impounded.

Sept. 3, 12:25 p.m.

A woman on Greenwood Avenue got into a verbal argument with the 21-year old daughter of her son's roommate. The 21-year old called her a name. Two people at the scene requested police.

Sept. 3, 4:20 p.m.

A burglary was reported on Walnut Street. A front door was found forced open, and gone were jewelry, cash and passports.

Sept. 3, 4:53 p.m.

A woman on Hobson Avenue said because of a party nearby, she was unable to park her handicapped van in front of her home, and she was "mad."

Sept. 3, 5:22 p.m.

A resident came to the police station to turn in some stuffed animals for the department's teddy bear program.

Sept. 3, 5:51 p.m.

A male transient reportedly stole lawn equipment from a mobilehome park on Sacramento Avenue. The man was last seen heading toward Todhunter with the lawn edger.

Sept. 3, 6:59 p.m.

A Willow Avenue woman said her eyes were burning due to some unknown substance. The same thing had occurred the day before.

Sept. 3, 7:06 p.m.

A man reported having spent the night in "someone's trailer," at an "unknown location on West Capitol Avenue," and "that person stole his ATM card."

Sept. 3, 8:48 p.m.

The plans of a 20-year old Madrone Avenue man were foiled, in more ways than one. He was detained for trying to steal $5.98 worth of condoms and $11.59 worth of lubricant from a West Sacramento store. He was held for police by loss prevention personnel, then cited by police and released.

Sept. 3, 9:30 p.m.

Police responded after a 30-year old Madrone Avenue man fired off a round from his Ruger 9 mm handgun inside a home. The man said he thought the gun was unloaded, and it went off by accident. He was cited.

Sept. 3, 9:13 p.m.

The employee of a Southport retail store reported having "received a text message threatening that someone would be at his workplace at 2200 hours to (assault) him." He said security at the store had been notified of the threat.

Sept. 4, 3:42 a.m.

Near Arthur Drive and Elliot Street, a man reported that "a male with blood on his clothes" tried to take a car away from the man's wife. The car was not successfully stolen.

Sept. 4, 5:20 a.m.

A Fremont Boulevard resident said that a person who had been partying earlier nearby was "now driving recklessly up and down the street after hitting the (resident's) fence." The subject was in an older, dark Chevy sedan.

Sept. 4, 7:58 a.m.

The rear license plate was reported stolen from a vehicle at a Glide Avenue mobilehome park. Shortly afterward, a similar crime was reported on Andrew Street.

Sept. 4, 11:44 a.m.

A man called police to report an incident near a West Capitol supermarket. A male subject had come around a corner and pushed the caller's girlfriend. The caller had reported the incident to store security, who were talking to the suspect now. When questioned further by a dispatcher, the man became upset, demanding that the police "just go."

Sept. 4, 12:11 p.m.

An 18-year old man said he lived at a California Street address with his grandmother, who was out of town. But the man's mother — who did not live at that home — had removed all his belongings from the place, and told him she wouldn't allow him back. He asked for assistance.

Sept. 4, 2:04 p.m.

A woman reported a suspicious incident at a Southport day care facility. She suspected abuse, and had questions for police.

Sept. 4, 4:22 p.m.

"After getting his oil changed at this location yesterday, (a man) found a huge dent in his tailgate." The incident occurred at a Riverpoint Court business.

Sept. 4, 5:35 p.m.

A witness said that some dogs had been left in a Hummer in a parking lot for at least two hours, and they were panting and barking at passersby. While the witness was on the phone with a dispatcher, the driver returned and left with the vehicle and dogs.

Sept. 4, 6:41 p.m.

A three-vehicle collision was reported at Harbor Boulevard and Business 80. There were no injuries reported, but the roadway was blocked.

Sept. 4, 8:47 p.m.

A man had been seen looking into a living room window from a home's backyard along Todhunter Avenue.

Sept. 4, 10:18 p.m.

A witness said there was a drunk driver on Jefferson Boulevard, southbound at Linden. The gray Pontiac G6 was "swerving all over the roadway," and "almost hit another vehicle."

Sept. 4, 10:26 p.m.

A caller said three juveniles were trying to "bust out" a bus shelter at Douglas Avenue and Cummins Way. They were using a metal post.

Sept. 4, 10:52 p.m.

A garbage bin was reported on fire at 3rd and C streets.

Sept. 4, 11:18 p.m.

Security personnel at a West Capitol supermarket detained a shoplifting suspect who tried to run. The male subject was "cooperative now, but does not want to give his name and has no ID on him."

Two 'missing persons' searches end well

Two intensive "missing person" searches last week ended on a positive note.

On Tuesday afternoon, a nine-year old boy at Bridgeway Island Elementary School was sent to detention, but never showed up. His clipboard was found in front of the school, and neither the school nor the boy's parents knew where he had gone.

According to information from both the local police and fire departments, a "block-by-block" search commenced, and a helicopter also buzzed Southport, looking for the missing boy.

Police, firefighters and members of the city's CERT team (a group of trained emergency assistance volunteers) all became involved, with a command post set up at the elementary school.

Local media were given the child's photo, name and physical description.

A citizen apparently saw the media reports and called police after spotting the youth a few miles away, near Ramco Boulevard and Southport Parkway in Southport. He was picked up by police at about 7 p.m. and returned safely to his parents.

"He just ran away because he was upset after being sent to detention," said Lieutenant Tod Sockman of the West Sacramento Police Department.

On Saturday, local police again asked for media and community help in finding another missing person.

A 54-year old woman who was "possibly in need of medical attention" disappeared the afternoon before. Police released her name and description.

The woman was located safe in West Sacramento on Saturday morning.

Three-year old mystery:

Remains belonged to Colusa man

A three-year old mystery was solved last week, with the identification of human remains discovered earlier this year in rural Yolo County.

The Yolo County Sheriff's Department announced that the remains were identified as those of 37-year old Jose Luis Velasquez of Colusa County. He was reported missing by his family in October, 2008, after they reported they had not heard from him in several weeks.

Investigators from the Department of Justice compared DNA from the body's skeletal remains to DNA samples from several family members, confirming the body belonged to Velasquez.

"At the time the remains were located, Jose Luis Velasquez was the only outstanding missing person listed for the Yolo County and Colusa County sheriffs' offices," said Sgt. Lance Faille of the Yolo County Sheriff's Department in a press release.

The department plans to try to locate more of his remains in the area and try to identify a cause of death. The death is now being considered "suspicious."

Anyone with information is asked to call Sgt. Faille at (530) 668-5212.

DUI checkpoint results from Jefferson Blvd., August 27

The News-Ledger has obtained the results of a "DUI checkpoint" staged by the West Sacramento Police Department on Saturday, Aug. 27, as part of a statewide crackdown on drunk drivers through the Labor Day holiday travel period.

The checkpoint ran from 7:30 p.m. to midnight on the 3200-block of Jefferson Boulevard in Southport, reports Lieutenant Tod Sockman of the W.S.P.D.

Although there were no drunk driving arrests, six people were cited for unlicensed driving.

The police department announced in advance that there would be a DUI checkpoint that night somewhere in the city, but did not announce its location. The policy is meant to deter drinking and driving.

9/11 flag display returns:

Colors in the breeze: one man's tribute to victims of September 11

A former West Sacramentan will bring back his annual tribute to the victims of the 9/11 terrorist attacks this Friday. John Vinson will plant hundreds of flags in the ground at a site near the barge canal in Southport, leaving them open to viewing by Jefferson Boulevard motorists from Friday morning to Sunday at dusk.

Sunday marks the tenth anniversary of the attacks in 2001 in which terrorists hijacked and crashed several airliners, bringing down the World Trade Center and damaging the Pentagon.

"We'll have pretty close to 350 American and memorial flags," Vinson told the News-Ledger. "What's going to be different this time is that we're also going to have some (smaller) four-inch by six-inch flags. We're going to have one of those for every victim — there will be almost 3,000 of those in the field."

The display will go up in a field on the northeast corner of Jefferson and South River Road, near the barge canal. Officials of the West Sacramento Redevelopment Agency have given Vinson access to the property for the memorial.

The expenses of the display

"come out of pocket, with a few people donating money and flags," he said.

There are also volunteers who help to put up the flags, monitor them, and take them down again.

"When I start putting them up in the morning, I have around three or four people with me," Vinson said. "Overall, I can count on about five people."

from the state Housing & Redevelopment Agency. He's now a general contractor. He began his own personal tribute to the 9/11 victims the first year after the attacks, when he lived in West Sacramento. He will continue this year even though he has moved out of the city.

"It's become a thing people in West Sacramento expect," he said.

The works will be among 250 auctioned in a live, televised event over three days from September 23-25.

GO FIGURE!

by Linda Thistle

The idea of Go Figure is to arrive at the figures given at the bottom and right-hand columns of the diagram by following the arithmetic signs in the order they are given (that is, from left to right and top to bottom). Use only the numbers below the diagram to complete its blank squares and use each of the nine numbers only once.

COUCH THEATER DVD PREVIEWS

BY SAM STRUCKHOFF

PICKS OF THE WEEK

"Thor" (PG-13) -- The Norse god of thunder steps up to the plate for his turn at bat for Marvel superhero movies. The Scandinavian muscledrake (played by Chris Hemsworth) hits it out of the park in terms of visual splendor and respect for the comics, but limps all the way to home plate when compared with the current standard for superheroes on film.

Thor breaks the superhero mold in a few ways -- he's never an Average Joe, his backstory is more otherworldly than familiar, and he doesn't mount a war against crime, but rather he battles arcane and supernatural evil. True geeks must see "Thor" as a prerequisite to the upcoming Avengers movie that will tie together all of Marvel's major releases from the past few years. More casual superhero fans can skip this middle-of-its-class flick and play catch up when it's time for the big reunion.

"Incendies" (R) -- Nominated for Best Foreign Language Film Oscar, this import is emotionally powerful and socially relevant. After the death of their mother, twins Jeanne and Simon are tasked with finding the father who they thought had died and the brother they never knew they had.

The journey takes the siblings to the Middle East, where the rabbit-hole twists into a world of perpetual war and long-held hard feelings. The performances and pure tension make this a memorable and touching work.

"Conan O'Brien Can't Stop" (R) -- After the debacle over who should host "The Tonight Show" and his falling out with NBC, comedy writer and TV personality, Conan O'Brien, takes his act on the road. In this documentary of "The Legally Prohibited from Being Funny on Television Tour," the gawky funnyman travels the country doing live performances and reflecting on his role in the comedy world.

Even for people who never stayed up late for a dose of Conan, "Conan O'Brien Can't Stop" has plenty of chuckles and an interesting portrayal of somebody who is utterly compelled to make people laugh.

BUYER BEWARE

"Star Wars: The Original Trilogy" [Blu-ray] -- Enough time has passed since the last re-release, so we're apparently due for another Star Wars box set. Though this latest batch contains only the original trilogy (episodes IV-VI), they are not Blu-ray versions of the old releases, but rather the very-altered 2004 editions in Blu-ray format. These movies are riddled with annoying tweaks, awful updated special effects and re-touched or even re-shot footage mixed in with the original films from the 1970s. In short, they have all the charm and visual panache of a fine work of modern art adorned with shiny stickers and eraser burn.

TV RELEASES

"Supernatural: The Complete Sixth Season" "The Big Bang Theory: The Complete Fourth Season" "Glee: The Complete Second Season" "It's Always Sunny In Philadelphia: Season 6" "The Good Wife: The Second Season" "That '70s Show: Biggest Hits" "Mythbusters: Collection 7" "The Dick Van Dyke Show 50th Anniversary Edition: Fan Favorites"

6 tablespoons butter, melted
3 tablespoons vanilla extract from 1 1/2 tablespoons to 1/2 teaspoon and proceed with the ice-cream preparation recipe below.

1. Using a large bowl, whip heavy cream to stiff peaks and set aside. Using another bowl, whisk sweetened condensed milk, butter and vanilla together until well-combined. Gently fold in the whipped cream.
2. Place the bowl of ice-cream mixture into another large bowl filled with ice water. Let it set in the cold water until the mixture is cold, or cover the ice-cream mixture with Saran or plastic wrap and place it in the refrigerator to chill overnight.
3. Proceed with the recipe below to freeze the ice cream, or use the variations to create other flavors. Makes 1/2 gallon of ice cream.

Variations:

Cinnamon Bun Ice Cream
Add in 1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon to the recipe above and decrease the vanilla extract from 1 1/2 tablespoons to 1/2 teaspoon and proceed with the ice-cream preparation recipe below.

Chocolate Chip Ice Cream
Mix 1 1/2 cups of chocolate chips into the vanilla ice-cream recipe above and decrease the vanilla extract

Choco-Peanut Butter Chip Ice Cream
Add in the 1/2 cup Nutella Hazelnut Spread and 1 cup peanut butter chips to the vanilla ice-cream recipe above. Decrease the vanilla extract from 1 1/2 tablespoons to 1/2 teaspoon and proceed with the ice-cream preparation recipe below.

To Prepare the Ice Cream:

1. Stir the chilled ice-cream mixture and then pour it into a 4-quart container (preferably a chilled metal or a shallow plastic container) or two 2-quart containers. Cover with plastic or Saran wrap.
2. After 45 minutes, check the mixture to see if it is freezing near the edges. Remove it from the freezer and stir vigorously with a hand-held mixer, stick blender, spatula or whisk to break up any frozen sections and to make the mixture smooth. Cover and return ice cream to freezer.
3. Keep checking every 30 minutes to see if the ice cream is freezing near the edges. Stir vigorously (by hand with a spatula or whisk, or with the electric mixer or stick blender). It will likely take 3 to 4 hours to be frozen and ready to serve. The ice cream will be good for one week.

Old-Fashioned Ice Cream With a Modern Twist

Making ice cream at home is an old-fashioned way to have a cool summer treat. You can make ice cream at home without a machine by using a few simple techniques.

Freezing the custard-based ice-cream recipe below (or anything that goes from a liquid to a solid form) means the formation of hard ice crystals. A machine churns the ice-cream mixture constantly, breaking up the crystals. If you're not using a machine, you can break up the ice crystals by using a spatula, whisk or hand-held mixer to create a smooth, creamy dessert.

The trick to avoiding ice crystals is to use a large amount of sugar. Sugar lowers the freezing point of the ice-cream mixture so that large crystals are unable to form.

Always use cooked or pasteurized eggs or an egg substitute in your ice cream to avoid any foodborne illness (food poisoning). If using a recipe with eggs, the base should be heated to an internal temperature of 160 degrees Fahrenheit and then cooled. This temperature will kill any salmonella, if present.

Another tip to making smooth, creamy ice cream is to make sure everything you use is cold. After you make the ice-cream mixture, cover it and allow to chill overnight in the refrigerator.

When you're ready to freeze the mixture, place it into a metal container that has been wrapped tightly in a plastic bag and placed in the freezer for several hours. This will cut down on freezing time. Pouring the ice-cream mixture into a shallow container with lots of surface area (which has been wrapped tightly in a plastic bag and placed in the freezer for hours) is another way to get it to freeze rapidly. The only downside of this homemade mixture (if you want to call it that) is that this ice cream needs to be eaten within a week after it's made for best quality.

SUMMONS (CITACION JUDICIAL) NOTICE TO DEFENDANT: (AVISO AL DEMANDADO): Cesar Vilchez, Miray Gendi, Magdi Gendi and DOES I through XL, inclusive
FILED Superior Court of California, Sacramento 5/7/2009
Case Number: 34-2009-00043615
YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF: (LO ESTA DEMANDADO EL DEMANDANTE): BEA FRANCHETTO

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE: The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case.

Tiene 30 DIAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y mas información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede mas cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le de un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presente su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin mas advertencia. Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede Pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales. AVISO: Por ley, la corte tiene derecho a reclamar las cuotas y los costos exentos por imponer un gravamen sobre cualquier recuperación de $10,000 o mas de valor recibida mediante un acuerdo o una concesión de arbitraje en un caso de derecho civil. Tiene que pagar el gravamen de la corte antes de que la corte pueda desechar el caso.
